

RYAN CONN

Civil Engineering Technician

Mr. Conn has a variety of experience in plan preparation, testing, inspection, water right preparation, research, and surveying. He is experienced with numerous computer applications including AutoCad and Civil 3D as well as the use of advanced surveying equipment including GPS technology.

Relevant Project Experience

Various Water Right Surveys

Mr. Conn has performed field work and map preparation for a number of water right surveys. This includes field work using GPS surveying equipment, map preparation using AutoCad and related software, and water right research.

White King/Lucky Lass Mines Surveying & Monitoring:

This project involved gamma surveying and water monitoring of a uranium mine cleanup site located north of Lakeview, Oregon. Mr. Conn was responsible for gamma scanning, pond and well monitoring, and client coordination.

Lake District Hospital Remodel

This project involved site design for the remodel of the Lake District Hospital. Mr. Conn was involved in surveying and drafting.

Years of Experience:

3 years of technician experience

Professional Area of Expertise

Drafting

Surveying

Testing

Water Rights

